

House District 25

Metin Vargonen (D)

Economy

- Supports raising taxes on the highest-earning Georgians, reducing sales tax, and increasing the minimum wage
- Wants to protect workers from AI displacement, and invest in green technology.

Housing

- Supports restricting corporate home ownership to no more than 100 homes.

Public Safety

- No information listed

Education

- Opposes voucher programs that divert funds from public schools
- Supports school food programs
- Opposes politically motivated book bans in libraries.

Healthcare

- Supports women's autonomy over medical decisions
- Opposes the heartbeat law
- Believes abortion rights should be codified in the state constitution.

Voting & Elections

- No information listed

Immigration

- Supports stopping ICE coordination with state law enforcement until due process mechanisms and accountability for all encounters improve.

Elaine Padgett (D)

Economy

- Supports attracting investment while protecting local businesses and creating jobs
- Favors green tech and infrastructure investment.

Housing

- No information listed

Public Safety

- Supports safe gun storage legislation aimed at protecting minors.

Education

- Opposes voucher programs that divert resources from public schools.

Healthcare

- Believes the healthcare burden should be lifted from small businesses and supports expanding healthcare access
- Pro-choice on reproductive rights.

Voting & Elections

- No information listed

Immigration

- No information listed

First Amendment

- No information listed

Todd Jones (R)– Incumbent

Economy

- Prioritizes the state's Rainy Day Fund, supports conservative investment, and requiring voter approval before any new local taxes.

Housing

- No information listed

Public Safety

- Supports fully funding police departments and increasing funding for police training.

Education

- Favors school choice, prioritizes classroom safety, supports early education (ages 0-4), and has called for restoration of pre-COVID public school funding levels.

Healthcare

- Supported legislation against surprise medical billing and favors studying the feasibility of expanding healthcare access to vulnerable populations.

Voting & Elections

- No information listed

Immigration

- No information listed

First Amendment

- No information listed

Matthew Philip (R)

Economy

- No information listed

Housing

- No information listed

Public Safety

- No information listed

Education

- No information listed

Healthcare

- No information listed

Voting & Elections

- No information listed

Immigration

- No information listed

First Amendment

- No information listed