

Senate District 41

Kim Jackson (D) Incumbent

Economy

- Focused on finding solutions for homelessness

Housing

- No information listed

Public Safety

- No information listed

Education

- Supports investments in public schools
- Advocates for early childhood education, affordable childcare, and investing in foster care

Healthcare

- Has consistently supported full medicaid expansion in GA

Voting & Elections

- Voted NO on SB 202 (2021), the Election Integrity Act, which imposed new restrictions on absentee voting, limited drop boxes, and expanded legislative control over election administration

Immigration

- Works to enhance economic participation and opportunity for immigrants

First Amendment

- Voted NO on HB 30 (2024), which codified the IHRA definition of antisemitism into Georgia law, citing her experience as a minority voice and concern for those on all sides of the conflict

Shenika Maddox (D)

Economy

- Committed to expanding economic opportunities for Georgians
- Understands firsthand what families face from rising costs and the need for real economic opportunity

Housing

- No information listed

Public Safety

- Wants to create safer communities

Education

- Recognizes the need for better schools as a core issue facing families in District 41

Healthcare

- No information listed

Voting & Elections

- No information listed

Immigration

- No information listed

First Amendment

- No information listed

Jeff Newlin (R)

Economy

- Pledges to sponsor legislation that lowers taxes and puts more take-home pay in the hands of Georgians.

Housing

- No information listed

Public Safety

- No information listed

Education

- No information listed

Healthcare

- No information listed

Voting & Elections

- No information listed

Immigration

- No information listed

First Amendment

- Pledges to fight for individual rights and freedoms and protect Georgians from attacks on their personal and religious beliefs.

