

House District 94

Venola Lucrecia Mason (D)

Economy

- Supports realigning the workforce with training for in-demand jobs and investing in small and local businesses that support advancement
- Favors incorporating childcare into workforce infrastructure.

Housing

- Believes cost of living and consumer protections should be strengthened.

Public Safety

- No information listed

Education

- Emphasizes family-school partnerships, expanding school mental health services, and prioritizing teacher retention in high-need schools.

Healthcare

- Supports community clinics, and strengthening postpartum care access
- Supports expanding mental and behavioral health capacity through a phased approach.

Voting & Elections

- No information listed

Immigration

- No information listed

First Amendment

- No information listed

Kelly Kautz (D)

Economy

- Prioritizes economic stability for families and supports eliminating the $85 million DFCS deficit.

Housing

- Supports reduced taxes on construction materials and restrictions on investment properties
- Supports expanding the state housing voucher program, and implementing less strict rental criteria.

Public Safety

- No information listed

Education

- Supports expanding after-school programs and apprenticeships, advocates for legal representation for students in tribunal proceedings
- Supports fully funding pre-K.

Healthcare

- Supports incentivizing professionals entering the mental health field and expanding Medicaid under the Peach Care Plus Act.

Voting & Elections

- No information listed

Immigration

- No information listed

First Amendment

- No information listed

Ikenna Emmanuel Ugwumandu (D)

Economy

- No information listed

Housing

- Supports policies expanding access to affordable homeownership for first-time buyers
- Supports development policies that prioritize residents over investors.

Public Safety

- No information listed

Education

- Supports treating childcare as essential infrastructure and investing in technical, entrepreneurship, and apprenticeship programs for students.

Healthcare

- No information listed

Voting & Elections

- No information listed

Immigration

- No information listed

First Amendment

- No information listed

Elmore Alexander (D)

Economy

- Believes in using the science of neuroplasticity as a framework for rewiring the local economy.

Housing

- No information listed

Public Safety

- Supports protecting DeKalb schools from closures.

Education

- No information listed

Healthcare

- Supports medical marijuana expansion based on his work treating veterans.

Voting & Elections

- No information listed

Immigration

- No information listed

First Amendment

- No information listed

