

Senate District 18

Steve McNeel (R) – Incumbent

Economy

- Supports cutting taxes and reducing government spending
- Supports creating jobs with a particular emphasis on farmers and agribusiness in Middle Georgia

Housing

- Emphasizes property tax relief, stating that annual assessment increases are hurting seniors and those on fixed incomes

Public Safety

- Supports increased funding for law enforcement to keep families safe from crime

Education

- Supports school choice while also working to improve all schools
- Frames education policy around putting parents and children first

Healthcare

- No information listed

Voting & Elections

- No information listed

Immigration

- Supports President Trump's policies to deport undocumented immigrants with criminal records

First Amendment

- No information listed

Eugene Allison (R)

Economy

- No information listed

Housing

- No information listed

Public Safety

- His top priority is increasing criminal penalties for domestic violence and related crimes like stalking
- Cites what he describes as a "revolving door justice system" that fails victims with light consequences

Education

- Has identified school safety reform and CPS (Child Protective Services) reform as campaign priorities.

Healthcare

- No information listed

Voting & Elections

- No information listed

Immigration

- No information listed

First Amendment

- Has stated a commitment to protecting "constitutional freedoms" broadly.

