

Governor

Rick Jackson (R)

Economy

- Pledges to immediately freeze property taxes to halt runaway assessments.
- Would cut the state income tax in half within four years and work to eliminate it entirely within eight years.
- Supports deploying AI and technology to slash wasteful spending while improving services.
- Supports tying public assistance to job training or employment for able-bodied adults.

Housing

- Pledges an immediate statewide freeze on property taxes.

Public Safety

- Pledges full support for law enforcement with resources, training, and respect.
- Rejects "soft-on-crime" policies.
- Would ban policies that release offenders quickly.

Education

- Opposes DEI programs and ideological indoctrination in education.
- Supports strengthening Georgia's Parents' Bill of Rights.
- Would bar boys from competing in girls' sports or using girls' bathrooms and locker rooms.
- Supports freezing tuition, room, and board at public colleges and technical schools.

Healthcare

- Opposes Medicaid expansion.
- Supports Georgia's existing abortion ban.

Voting & Elections

- Supports term limits for politicians.
- Supports auditing government programs for effectiveness.

Immigration

- Supports mass deportations.
- Supports state law enforcement assisting the federal government in immigration enforcement.
- Opposes sanctuary policies.

First Amendment

- Pledges to expand the state's anti-BDS framework.
- Supports investment in Israel bonds.
- Would strengthen Georgia-Israeli law enforcement and economic partnerships.

Burt Jones (R)

Economy

- Supports eliminating state income tax.
- Supports providing gas tax relief and streamlining permitting and licensing processes.
- Would cut fees and regulations on small businesses.
- Prioritizes vocational and technical training to build a skilled workforce.

Housing

- Supports property tax relief measures.
- Supports targeted budget support for homelessness programs, particularly those aiding veterans.
- Promotes workforce housing through vocational training and economic expansion.

Public Safety

- Pledges increased funding, better retirement benefits, and resources for police officers.
- Would crack down on violent crime, gangs, sex traffickers, and repeat offenders through mandatory minimum sentences.
- Prioritizes addressing the fentanyl epidemic with tougher penalties.

Education

- Supports school choice and expanded vocational and technical education.
- Supports investments in teachers, literacy coaches, and students.
- Supports banning critical race theory.
- Would protect girls' sports by ensuring participation aligns with biological sex.

Healthcare

- As Lt. Governor and former state senator, pushed to expand rural hospital access and reduce barriers to new healthcare facilities.
- Supported extending Medicaid postpartum coverage to one year.
- Opposes gender-affirming care for minors and broad expansion of government programs.

Voting & Elections

- Prioritizes restoring voter confidence through full enforcement of SB 202, which introduced stricter ID requirements for absentee ballots, limited drop box availability, shortened runoff election cycles, and restricted handing out food and water to voters in line.
- As a 2020 alternate elector, questioned the election results.

Immigration

- Supports Trump's immigration enforcement policies and tactics.
- Supports strong border enforcement and curtailing sanctuary policies.
- Opposes prosecutors that hinder enforcement.
- Ties immigration to public safety by cracking down on gangs and fentanyl smuggling.

First Amendment

- As lieutenant governor, prioritized the True Patriotism and Universal Student Access Act to codify and protect public school students' First Amendment rights.
- Denounced campus pro-Palestine protests.
- Routinely conflates anti-Zionism with antisemitism.

